FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

TUESDAY, AUG. 30.

After a display of exceptional strength and activity at its opening, the stock market to-day became highly uncertain, with alternating advances and recessions, although the general trend of a majority of the active features was clearly downward, with their closing prices, in spite of a final rally, at fractional losses. The early trading was influenced by the attitude of London, and for that account purchases totalled at 40,000 shares were consummated.

These purchases included some 10,000 shares of United States Steel preferred, which with Brooklyn Rapid Transit and Reading were conspicuous exceptions to the general course of other active issues, closing as they did at substantial gains. There were no

THE OUTSIDE MARKET.

The uniform strength and steady swing throughout the outside market for the last week gave place to-day to a more irregular state of affairs. While in certain quarters of the market the supply of stock was short, and prices were mand for them causing the price of several prominent issues to advance sharply, there
